Possible conflicts of interest
Conflict of interest is where someone is compromised when their personal interests or obligations conflict with the responsibilities as a voting member of the Hāto Petera Wāwāhi Ara. It means that their independence, objectivity or impartiality can be called into question. A conflict of interest can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> actual: where the conflict already exists

- potential: where the conflict is about to happen, or could happen
- perceived: where other people might reasonably think that a person has been compromised.

The main goal of managing conflicts of interest is to ensure that decisions are made – and are seen to be made – on proper grounds, for legitimate reasons and without bias. The Hāto Petera Wāwāhi Ara will run a transparent process to manage any actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest. Please indicate below any actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest.

Please list if applicable
